'A transformative spiritual practice , the Dances of Universal Peace are grounded in the celebration of the world's wisdom traditions to inspire harmony and peace. All are welcomed to the circle to hold hands in an embodied prayer of Unity. There are no performers and no experience is necessary as everything is taught in the moment. Together we sing and dance in an atmosphere of authenticity, vulnerability and compassion to dissolve separation, explore our interconnectedness with Creation and all Humanity.

Samuel L. Lewis , the originator of the Dances of Universal Peace , remarked about the potential of the Dances as a vehicle for revolutionary peace-making in our time

"Although we seem to be in a world of song and dance, we are most concerned with Peace on Earth'
The dances are meditative, joyous, uplifting , we call on sacred phrases ,chants and embodied movement to assist in touching the spiritual essence in ourselves and recognizing it in others.
